How do I get my real estate license?

The Virginia Real Estate Board (VREB), which is the state licensing agency, requires you to complete 60 hours of pre-license education before taking the state license exam. The Principles of Real Estate course offered by Churchland Academy of Real Estate fulfills that requirement. Students are required to have a high school diploma or its equivalent prior to sitting for the licensing examination.

How do I enroll in the Principles of Real Estate Course?

We offer the Principles of Real Estate at Churchland Academy of Real Estate seven times a year. Our instructors are heavily involved in real estate on a daily basis. Our current schedule can be found on the back of this form. Early tuition is $300 and includes the textbook and handouts.

Do I need to buy my books?

We use the textbook titled Modern Real Estate Practice 21st edition. This book is included in your tuition.

Once we receive your payment, we will reserve a seat for you. It is a good idea to begin reading prior to the first class period.

What do I need to bring to class?

You will need to bring a pen, paper, highlighter, and a calculator. We also suggest you dress comfortably. Absolutely NO CELL PHONES allowed in class.

What if I decide to drop out of the Course?

Students who drop out after attending the first class will receive no refund but may retake the course for up to one year from original class date for $100 per course. Students who decide to drop out before attending will receive their tuition back minus $50 for the textbook & a $25 withdrawal fee.

What if I fail the Principles of Real Estate course?

After unsuccessful completion, you are allowed to retake the Principles of Real Estate course for only $100 within one year of your original class date, as long as space permits. To retake the course, register & pay online to reserve your seat. Bring all of your materials with you to class. The entire course must be attended.

After I complete the Principles of Real estate course, what's next?

During the first class session, you will fill out the PSI Exam Registration Form. We will send that form to PSI Exams upon successful completion of our course. Once PSI Exams has received your information, you may go on their website and register for the real estate licensing exam. The PSI Exam is $60. You may pay and register via the internet. For this you will need a VISA or MASTER CARD.

Once I pass the real estate licensing exam, what do I do next?

Once you pass the licensing examination you will need to:

- (1) Find a broker with whom you want to affiliate
- (2) Complete the application form provided by
- (3) Have the broker submit everything with your fees to the Virginia Real Estate Board (VREB). VREB is the state agency that grants & governs real estate licensure.

When applying for your real estate license, or if you have any other questions regarding licensure, contact VREB at (804) 367-8526.
