How do I get my real estate license?

The Virginia Real Estate Board (VREB), which is the state licensing agency, requires you to complete 60 hours of pre-license education before taking the state license exam. The Principles of Real Estate course offered by Churchland Academy of Real Estate fulfills that requirement. Students are required to have a high school diploma or its equivalent prior to sitting for the licensing examination. Must be at least 18 years of age.

How do I enroll in the Principles of Real Estate Course?

You can enroll online at www.churchlandacademyofrealestate.com Fill out the registration form and SUBMIT before clicking on the credit card payment button. Follow the prompts to make a payment. If you are not paying by credit card, then you may register in person and pay with a check or money order. Cash is not accepted.

Do I need to buy my books?

No, the Modern Real Estate Practice 21st Edition textbook and study guide are included in your tuition.

What do I need to bring to class?

You will need to bring a pen, paper, highlighter, and a calculator. We also suggest you dress comfortably. Absolutely NO CELL PHONES allowed in class.

What if I decide to drop out of the Course?

Students who drop out after attending the first class will receive no refund but may retake the course for up to nine months from original class date for $100 per course. Students who decide to drop out before attending will receive their tuition back minus $50 for the textbook & a $25 withdrawal fee.

What if I fail the Principles of Real Estate course?

After unsuccessful completion, you are allowed to retake the Principles of Real Estate course for only $100 within nine months of your original class date, as long as space permits. To retake the course, register & pay online to reserve your seat. Bring all of your materials with you to class. The entire course must be attended.

After I complete the Principles of Real estate course, what's next?

During the first class session, you will fill out the PSI Exam Registration Form. We will send that form to PSI Exams upon successful completion of our course. Once PSI Exams has received your information, you may go on their website and register for the real estate licensing exam. The PSI Exam is $60. You may pay and register at test-takers.psiexams.com/VARE

Once I pass the real estate licensing exam, what do I do next?

Once you pass the licensing examination you will need to:

- (1) Find a broker with whom you want to affiliate
- (2) Complete the Real Estate Salesperson Application
- (3) Have the broker submit everything with your fees to the Virginia Real Estate Board (VREB). VREB is the state agency that grants & governs real estate licensure.

When applying for your real estate license, or if you have any other questions regarding licensure, contact VREB at (804) 367-8526.
